When the railroad came to Heber in 1899 the Denver & Rio Grande received the mail contract on a daily basis. Fred Hayes was postmaster for a short time and then was followed by John A. Smith who served until March 1, 1915. Dan McMillan was appointed next and served until November 1, 1920. Guy Duke, a veteran of World War I was then appointed and served until December of 1922 when Jay Jensen was appointed. Maranda Smith took office as postmistress on December 18, 1923 and served until February 19, 1936, when the present postmaster, Heber M. Rasband, took office.

Star route carriers during the years have been E. J. Duke who served for more than 40 years, Elijah Davis, John Wall, Willard Davis, Ben Murdock, Jay Cummings and Stacey Wright. Rural carriers who served for more than 30 years each included Lawrence B. Duke, Adolphia R. Duke, and Max Lee.

City postal delivery was established in Heber November 1, 1946, and carriers appointed at that time were Jay O. Johnson, Ray Wright, Bert Lindsay and Garth Rasband.

Another important governmental function in Heber, though it began at first as a private need, is operation of the Heber City Cemetery.

When the east part of the townsite was surveyed in 1859 an area near the foothills in the north-east part of the valley was set aside for burial plots. During that same year an infant daughter of James and Sariah Cook died and was the first person to be buried in the area. Later that year, John Carlile was injured while crossing Provo River and died in September. He became the first adult to be buried in the cemetery.

ALFRED SHARP for over fifteen years has been an honored public official of Wasatch County. He is county clerk, recorder and auditor. All classes of people know and appreciate his qualifications both as a business man and public servant.

Mr. Sharp has lived in this section of Utah all his life. He was born at Heber, February 19, 1886, son of Jonathan and Anna (Jowett) Sharp. His father came to Utah with one of the last ox trains across the plains. He was a steam engineer, and followed his occupation in many saw mills in the district. Later he took up farming and was one of the highly respected citizens of his district. He died January 1, 1919.

Alfred Sharp attended the grammar and high schools of Heber City, later completed a course in bookkeeping, and in such leisure as he has in his official duties he is devoting himself to the study of law. In 1911 he entered the livery business in Wyoming, but in 1912 returned to Heber, where he was a salesman and mechanic for the Studebaker Motor Company. In 1913 he became bookkeeper for the Heber Mercantile Company.

Mr. Sharp in 1916 was elected county clerk of Wasatch County. The county clerk is ex-officio, also auditor and recorder. The faithfulness and efficiency with which he has performed his duties has kept him continuously in office. He served three two-year terms, and is now in the second of his four-year terms. Mr. Sharp was also city treasurer of Heber in 1916-17. He is active in the Chamber of Commerce and is an elder in the Latter Day Saints Church, has been superintendent of the Sunday School at Heber, and is a member of the Mutual Improvement Association.

He married, July 8, 1911, Miss Della Eugene Michie, of Wasatch County. They have three children, Fenton L., N. Fawn and E. Lamar.
